Editor Tells of Attack by Tax Assessor

Alex. H. Washburn, editor of Hope Star, testified in Hope Municipal Court this morning that Hemstead County Tax Assessor Carter Sutton surprised him near the newspaper building on S. Walnut St. at 5 p. m. last Friday, knocked him to the sidewalk, and ran back to his truck and drove off.

Three eye-witnesses supported the editor's testimony. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert May, and Pat Simmons. Mr. May is a school teacher at Blewins; his wife works at Shipley Studio; and Mr. Simmons is a sign painter for Hope Sign & Neon Service.

Washburn swore out a warrant about 5:30 Friday charging Sutton with assault and battery, and about 7 o'clock Sutton filed identical action against Washburn. Both parties posted bond for appearance in Hope Municipal Court this morning.

Sutton Forfeits

But Sutton failed to appear and the city forfeited his $10 bond. Washburn pleaded not guilty and requested trial in order to show it was a case of assault rather than fighting. The court dismissed the charge against Washburn.

The case was heard by Acting Municipal Judge Talbot Field, Jr., sitting for Judge W. K. Lemley, with interrogation by City Attorney James H. Pilkinton.

Washburn said on the witness stand that he saw a truck stop on the east side of S. Walnut St., and a man jumped out and ran across the street toward him. The editor said he didn't recognize him in his haste and thought nothing about it because for a week people have been rushing into the Hope Bulane Co. office, which he was in front of, getting pipe and well repairs following the recent freeze.

But at the last moment the man veered, bumped him and grabbed him, the editor said, and he recognized Sutton just as the latter hit him in the face and muttered, "SOB." The editor said he fell across a weighing machine to the sidewalk, lost his glasses and cigar. "When I got up Sutton was running back to his truck. It was over in 10 seconds. I realized then why he was running," the editor testified. "I couldn't see a witness anywhere, and I had a feeling Sutton had been watching the street for that moment."

Washburn said it was the first time he had been assaulted in nearly 40 years of newspaper work, and added: "The irony of it is that despite the many controversies I've been in it appears that when I finally was hit last Friday it was for something I didn't write."

Appraisal Program

He said the newspaper, having been instrumental in twice defeating a rise in Hope School District millage from 35 to 40 mills, has been pressing for an appraisal system to reassess property, recognizing that the schools need more money and that the alternative to higher millage is an improved assessing system. Hope School District launched an appraisal program in 1958 with the co-operation of the tax assessor's office, he continued, and again turned to the appraisal plan this month. But at a meeting of taxing units at the courthouse Tuesday night, Jan. 23, Assessor Sutton was asked by Mrs. Frank King, president of Hope School Board, whether he would co-operate, and Sutton replied "I'll have to think it over — I'll take it under advisement."

Washburn said he covered this meeting personally, and that the appraisal plan was one specifically prepared by the real estate dealers of Hope. He testified that the first thought it was this story to which Sutton took exception, accounting for the attack. But after the attack he said he read his Friday edition thoroughly and found that Managing Editor Paul H. Jones had discussed assessment matters in the commentary column "Around the Town," which Jones writes independently.

"I think I got slugged for what Jones wrote," the editor testified. "I never see Jones' copy until it's in the paper. Of course Jones was only following the newspaper policy, and right or wrong I am responsible for everything in this paper regardless."

"I want to make the point we on the paper have no hard feeling against Mr. Sutton. When we are writing about assessments we are writing about the constitutional county office of Tax Assessor — not the assessor personally. I think Mr. Sutton misunderstands us on that point. The newspaper, having taken a stand against a millage increase, has the definite obligation to help the schools and good government in the direction of assessments — and that obligation we will carry out."

Car of Cotton Damaged by Fire

A carload of baled cotton from Arizona caused local firemen a night of work here last night before the blaze was brought fully under control about 3:30 a. m. The cotton was from Arizona and was enroute to the local compress.

The smouldering car, parked in the L&A yards was first noticed about 11 p. m. Firemen poured 25,000 to 30,000 gallons of water into the car but finally had to unload all the bales. Several bales were ruined and one end of the freight car was heavily damaged.

College Grid Player Takes His Own Life

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Rocco Morici, a football lineman on the Arkansas State College fresh man team, shot himself to death in a sheriff's car Saturday after being questioned in the death of a former student.

Morici, of Ozone Park, N.Y., was held in the death of Ronald Ingram, 19, who died Saturday of head injuries received Friday night.

Sheriff Lonnie Cooper, who witnessed the shooting said the 26-year-old Morici grabbed a pistol from a glove compartment in the sheriff's car and shot himself in the head.

Ingram, a Jonesboro minister's son, died in a Memphis hospital Saturday where he was taken Friday night after suffering a head injury in a brief scuffle on the college campus.

Police reported receiving conflicting statements from Morici and two witnesses concerning the Friday night fight.

However, Police Chief E. F. Frazier said the statements agreed that the incident followed a minor traffic accident and that Ingram held a tire tool in his hand.

The statements also agreed that Morici struck Ingram only once and the former student fell to the pavement, striking his head.

Frazier said Morici related in a written statement that he fended off Ingram who attempted to strike him with the tire tool. Morici said the tool struck his left arm and, the statement added, he struck Ingram when he believed the youth was about to strike again.

Funeral service for Ingram, the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ted Ingram, were held Sunday at his father's church the First Nazarene Church. Burial will be in Tulsa, Okla., Tuesday.

Morici's body was being returned to New York where he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Morici.

First Picture Ever Taken of Arkie

SOME 11 YEARS AGO A McNAB YOUTH spotted Old Arkie, the 13-foot alligator which is the pride of the Little Rock Zoo, in a field between Grassy Lake and Yellow Creek. He captured him with use of a tractor and cable and Ed Jackson brought him into Hope. This picture was made at Fair Park, the very first of the big Gator. Old Arkie has been having trouble at the

L. R. Zoo this winter and has made the news frequently in recent weeks. Seems he had a vitamin deficiency but is thought improved now. IN THE BACKGROUND WATCHING WERE (can't identify all of the men) the late Clarence Baker and Glen Carmichael, Bill Ruggles, Bob Shivers, Officers Burke and Padron, Officer Clifford Hughes.

Cautions on Correct Mail Address

Postmaster Robert Wilson cautions public to be certain that all Third Class mail bears the correct mail address of the person to whom it is sent. A person's residence address is very frequently not the same as his or her actual mail address, which may be a post office box, a rural route or a place of business. Also, such address as "Patmos Road," "Lewisville Road" etc. are not correct mail addresses.

Third-class mail includes not only circulars and circular letters, church, school or service club bulletins, but also Christmas cards, Valentine's, Easter, get-well and other greeting cards which are ordinarily mailed in unsealed envelopes with 3c postage.

Very recently regulations provide that mail of this class not only cannot be forwarded to another post office but cannot be transferred locally if the person has moved or the address is incorrect. It means also that if it is addressed to a person at a residence address who receives mail through a post office box, it cannot be transferred to the box. Neither can it be transferred if the person has changed post office boxes and it is addressed to the old box number. This type of mail also cannot be returned to the sender except as provided below.

Business houses, organizations and individuals who are making mailings of this type should take immediate steps to obtain the correct MAIL ADDRESS of the persons to whom it is sent. Some organizations are doing this by sending out one mailing by first-class mail, enclosing a card to be returned by the recipient showing his correct mail address. Others are obtaining the correct address by personal or telephone inquiry.

And, if you have been receiving such mail with an incorrect mail address, you should notify the sender of your correct address. The use of "Form 3547" has been discontinued. If, however, a piece of third-class mail bears the wording "RETURN REQUESTED" either printed, rubber-stamped or typewritten on the cover, and the address is incorrect, the post office will show the correct address on the cover and return the mail to the sender for a charge of 8c per piece, unless the weight rates a

Accidents Claim 27 in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Memphis businessman was found dead Sunday in his station wagon, which was submerged in 15 feet of water off U.S. Highway 79 about two miles south of Clarendon.

The victim, Frank N. Lewis, 38, apparently missed a curve or went to sleep at the wheel and his station wagon plunged down an embankment into a water-filled borrow pit, Sheriff H. L. McKenzie said.

His death brought to 27 the number of persons who were killed in Arkansas last week. Fourteen died in traffic accidents, six in fires, one in a fall and two each in shootings, a train-car wreck and a plane crash.

Lewis was president of Lewis International, a subsidiary of Lewis Diesel Co. of North Little Rock and Memphis. He left Pine Bluff Friday night after visiting his brother, T. Walker Lewis Jr. His family in Memphis asked Saturday that a search be started.

The submerged car was spotted from the air by one of five planes from the Civil Defense Aviation Unit of Pine Bluff.

Rosemond C. Davis, 20, of Marked Tree, was killed and a Memphis sailor, Seaman Jerry Ray House, was critically injured Sunday when their car hit a piling under a Highway 61 underpass near West Memphis. Davis was driving.

Vickie Griffin, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of the Central Community, eight miles southeast of Horatio, was fatally shot Sunday by a 13-year-old boy who was shooting at birds near her home.

Chance 100 to One She Will Live

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Nora Gunning, 19, of nearby Blacklick came home Sunday. Doctors last October said she had only one chance in 100 of doing so.

Nora, who was en route to Mexico, suffered 30 broken bones, a collapsed lung and was in a coma for 3½ weeks after an auto mobile collision near Nashville, Tenn., last October. Doctors gave her a 1-in-100 chance to live.

For four months she has been in Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville staging one of the most surprising recuperations in that hospital's history. Sunday she was released and flew home.

"Oh, she's home and it's wonderful," exclaimed her mother, Mrs. Robert Gunning.

"She doesn't have any definite plans yet," Mrs. Gunning said, "except that she plans to work in a hospital here this summer."

Nora, who had been studying political science at Swarthmore College before her accident, says she now wants to become a doctor.

Castro Claims Russian Help Saved Him

MOSCOW (AP)—In an interview published today in the Communist party paper Pravda and government paper Izvestia, Prime Minister Fidel Castro said his revolution in Cuba never could have survived without Soviet help.

"We know that without the Soviet Union, without the Socialist camp's assistance, a revolution in such a small country as Cuba would have been impossible because of imperialist aggression," Castro said.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the interview was granted in Havana Jan. 23 to Pavel Satyukov, chief editor of Pravda; and Alexei Adzhubel, Premier Khrushchev's son-in-law, who is chief editor of Izvestia.

Adzhubel interviewed President Kennedy last November and is stopping off at the White House Tuesday to see the President en route home.

Castro lashed out at the meeting of foreign ministers of the Organization of American States, assembled at Punta del Este, Uruguay, to consider measures to be taken against Cuba.

The prime minister asserted Cuba's policy with regard to Latin America is one of peace "and it is no fault of ours that imperialism seeks to isolate Cuba from the other countries of Latin America."

"The blame for the bad relations between Cuba and the United States lies with the government of the United States," he declared.

Local Men Killed in Wreck Sat.

Norvel Gene Gorham, 26, and Raleigh Eugene Ritchey, 31, both of Hope, were killed instantly late Saturday afternoon when the car in which they were traveling went out of control and hit a bridge abutment on an overpass just across the Fulton River bridge in Miller County.

Miller County Chief Deputy Pete Harrison said a witness reported the auto was traveling at a high rate of speed and hit the bridge on the opposite lane of traffic from which they were traveling.

Harrison said the car hit the bridge throwing both men out of the car on the left side of the road and the car then careened to the right and came to a stop.

Assisting in the investigation were Miller Deputies Harrison, Bob Dale and Gould Mason.

Mr. Gorham is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lillie Gorham; two sons, Danny and David, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gorham, and his grandmother, Mrs. Viola Bolo, all of Hope.

U. S. Has Won Battle to Suspend Cuba

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The foreign ministers of the American states agreed in principle today to "suspend" Fidel Castro's Cuban regime from hemisphere family councils.

A U.S. delegation source disclosed the breakthrough on this toughest issue of the conference, which has prolonged its deliberations here beyond the scheduled closing today. It came when Argentina and Chile — members of the so-called soft seven bloc led by Brazil and Mexico — accepted the majority view on the suspension procedure.

The U.S. informant speculated that the United States would get 17 to 18 of the 20 available votes for a policy statement that the Castro regime is unfit to sit in hemisphere councils so long as it embraces the Communist philosophy. The Council of the Organization of American States will be instructed by this conference to decide "without delay" just how Cuba can be suspended.

Agreeing not to disagree, the Western Hemisphere foreign ministers reached a general accord that there should be a series of at least six resolutions embodied in a final declaration so that those who wanted to vote against certain aspects could do so.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk appeared to have achieved limited success to this extent:

Most, if not all, of the 19 Latin American republics judging Cuba agree the Havana regime should be declared incompatible with the American system. Most are agreed the government of Prime Minister Fidel Castro should be suspended or expelled from OAS agencies. Most are agreed there should be no arms trade between their countries and Cuba. They said Castro's representatives should not sit on the Inter-American Defense Board and they feel a vigilance committee should be created to keep watch against subversion.

"There were great differences of opinion here on just what all this added up to.

The United States managed to get all countries—even Mexico, which voted with Cuba against holding this conference—to proclaim collectively that communism is bad for the hemisphere and that Castroism is incompatible with the Inter-American system if it remains in the embrace of the Soviet bloc.

Most agree in principle that the Castro regime does not belong in OAS agencies. The big stumbling block is how to get Cuba out.

"The bloc of seven go-slow nations led by Brazil and Mexico wanted to toss the issue to the OAS Council in Washington, where the matter would come under the OAS charter and not the Rio de Janeiro treaty for inter-American defense.

"There is no machinery under the OAS charter, by which the council is bound, to oust any member from its agencies. There is machinery under the Rio treaty.

Since a mass diplomatic break with Cuba was ruled out at the beginning of this conference, little punitive action is envisioned under the six-part declaration. An economic break is made entirely voluntary. Nations which have broken diplomatic relations with Cuba have no trade with the Castro regime except in nonstrategic items.

Removed by the State Department

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department is relieving Roger Tubby as assistant secretary for public affairs, appointing him U.S. representative to the U.N. office in Geneva.

The announcement came Saturday after a week of reports that a change was in the making. Among the reported reasons for the switch was that Tubby and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had been unable to establish a close working relationship.

As chief of public affairs in the State Department, Tubby, 51, was known to newsmen as a persistent advocate of maximum disclosure of information about international relations and diplomatic developments.

This, said sources, has brought him into conflict with the traditional preference of diplomats for secrecy, especially on matters under negotiation.

State Batters Record With Win

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State pushed its basketball record to 2-3 Saturday night with an 84-69 victory over St. Mary's of Winona, Minn., and the Indians meet two tough foes this week.

Tonight, they take on Kansas State Teachers, and Wednesday night, it's The Citadel. Both games are scheduled here.

Don Shatley led the Tribe past St. Mary's with 21 points. Gaylon Ward hit 19. Jerry Rook scored 17 and Warren Moore and Harold Calahan netted 10 each.

Porker Fullback Again Ineligible

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Curtis Cox, the hard-charging fullback who made such a good impression for the Arkansas Razorbacks as a sophomore and junior is scholastically ineligible to compete for the second year in a row.

Cox played in 1959 and 1960, then missed 1961 because of ineligibility. The university announced Saturday that he failed to pass required hours the past semester and will not be able to compete next fall.

Official preference of diplomats for secrecy, especially on matters under negotiation.

Officials said Tubby's successor had not been designated but that high on the list of possibilities was Robert J. Manning, 42, who resigned last December as Sunday editor of the New York Herald Tribune and formerly headed the London bureau of Time-Life-Fortune.

The State Department said Tubby will remain in the position of assistant secretary for several weeks before taking on his Geneva assignment with the rank of ambassador.

Few Negroes Make South Police Forces

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A report by the Southern Regional Council released Sunday indicates the addition of Negroes to southern police forces has increased by only 110 men since 1954.

The report, prepared by Elliott Rudwick of Southern Illinois University, included a survey covering Little Rock, Hot Springs and Jefferson County in Arkansas.

In Arkansas communities, Negro policemen are used to patrol Negro areas, the report showed. Little Rock, which has had Negro patrolmen since before World War I, has four Negro patrolmen, the same number employed in 1954.

Fort Smith, Hot Springs and Jefferson County which each had two Negro policemen or deputies in 1954, have the same number today.

The SRC report shows that while the Negro population in the South has increased greatly since 1954, the number of Negro law enforcement officials has remained relatively constant or showed only a slight increase.

A fear of white southerners of being arrested by Negro policemen is one force acting against Negro hiring, the report showed.

From Negro citizens, the SRC report noted, the complaint is that Negro officers are more strict than their white counterparts.

The harmattan is a hot, dry wind that sweeps in from the desert of Upper Volta. It dries up plants in the capital city, Ouagadougou, and sprinkles them with dry powder.

Teachers Has Slim AIC Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball race has turned into a battle for first place, and a battle for last place. This week, the first division teams meet those in the second division.

State Teachers still holds a slim lead with a 7-1 record after an 80-57 conquest of Southern State Saturday night. Then come Arkansas Tech Henderson and Ouachita, all of which have lost two games.

Harding, Southern State and Ozarks are tied for last place with 2-7 records. In the middle are Arkansas A&M, Arkansas College and Hendrix, and none are serious contenders for the lead.

State Teachers meets Ozarks Tuesday and Arkansas College Friday and will be heavily favored in both games. Tech faces Arkansas College and Southern State. Henderson meets Hendrix, Harding and A&M. And Ouachita plays Harding and Ozarks.

Ken Saylor of Tech upped his scoring average to 32.3 points per game with a 40-point performance Saturday night in Tech's 66-63 victory over Henderson.

He leads not only the AIC, but the NAIA in scoring. His percentage was 31.8 before the Henderson game. Saylor scored two field goals and two free throws in the final minute to bring Tech from behind. The Reddies dominated much of the game. Jim Bryan led Henderson with 15 points.

Freshman Wes Crawford scored 21 points for Hendrix Saturday night, but his team went down 55-48 to Ouachita. Wayne Davenport paced the Tigers with 19.

Ozarks hit a startling 61 percent of its field goal attempts in an 83-70 victory over Arkansas College. Cleve Branscum led Ozarks with 26 points and Birdie Rogers paced Arkansas College with 27.

Howard Lamb netted 25 points in leading Teachers to its easy victory over Southern State. Charles Crumpler hit 20 for the Muleriders.

A&M exploded in the second half and beat Harding 60-58 Saturday night. Harding led 29-27 at halftime, but A&M hit 10 straight points after the intermission and went ahead to stay. Harold Richards led A&M with 16 points and Dave Simpson and Vernon Rogers scored 10 each for Harding.

Orbit Try No Earlier Than Thurs.

By JOHN BARBOUR

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Project Mercury officials say the next attempt to rocket astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. three times around the world will come no earlier than Thursday.

Thus, today may have dawned T minus 73 hours for the Marine lieutenant colonel who sat more than five hours in the waiting spacecraft Saturday before weather forced a postponement.

Glenn, 40, attended Sunday services in Riverside Presbyterian Church, Al. Cocoa Beach and told the Rev. Charles E. Pfoiffer when he left, "Don't worry, I'll be back."

Otherwise Glenn was busy with preparations for his trip. Before church he attended an evaluation session. In the afternoon he donned his space suit and went through an hour-long practice mission in the space trainer.

Rocket and spacecraft crews worked on the Atlas booster rocket and the Friendship 7 atop it. They also went through a dress rehearsal of the last critical hours of the launch-day countdown. All systems were reported checking out well.

The critical problem at this stage again seemed to be the weather. Will clouds or winds over this missile base prevent the Atlas from being launched by limiting the visibility or making the few unsteady moments of the rocket's liftoff dangerous?

Will heavy seas, primarily in the Atlantic Ocean, put in doubt a safe recovery of Glenn and his capsule after the earth has been orbited?

On Saturday, a concentrated bank of clouds, nearly 1,000 feet thick, spread over central Florida. The countdown was halted with only 20 minutes to go. Later in the afternoon the skies cleared.

In Arlington, Va., the astronaut's family went about Sunday as usual, though Mrs. Glenn admitted the waiting was making it difficult to keep family life normal.

Electric CLOTHES DRYER

Today's housewife IS faced with a dilemma: there just doesn't seem to be enough hands to do all the work—especially on wash-day! There's the lifting... the carrying... the lugging... the hanging... the hauling back indoors! And there's always the hazards: the rain, the blowing, the soiling.

Now—consider the MODERN housewife—the one with a Flameless Electric Dryer: she simply whisks the clothes from washer to dryer, sets the control, and the dryer does the rest... with purer, cleaner heat than even sunshine! White clothes stay whiter, colors stay brighter, and because it's Flameless, this is the dryer that practically never needs adjustment!

So, if you haven't 6 hands why not settle for ONE Flameless Electric Clothes Dryer... the most modern Dryer on the market today!

FLAMELESS IS THE DIFFERENCE

Flameless Dryers cost you less because of simpler construction. They have about 15 fewer parts than other dryers.

Flameless Dryers need only one connection and no flue, which means you can put them anywhere.

Flameless Dryers are spotless any time you use them; there are clean only when they are new.

HD Club Calling Leaders Meet
Fifteen leaders from nine different HD Clubs and two 4-H Clubs were present at the Clothing Leaders Training Meeting, held in the Little Court Room at the Courthouse on Jan. 25.

Mrs. R. C. Snellgrove showed a shorty pajama top and a blouse that could be made from an old white shirt. These are a few of the items of clothing brought by different leaders to give the group ideas on how to make old clothing into something useful.

Should Other Woman Warn Another About Consequences of Illicit Love?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKIN

Dear Helen: I'm a woman who has loved too well and knows the heartaches which inevitably follow. When the affair became apparent to our friends the man in the case took the coward's way out by babbling to his wife that I, not he, was the pursuer.

A lie, of course, but since I never resisted his advances, I shared the guilt.

The wife consigned me, on paper, to hell. Believe me, I was already there. No lush evenings, sweet talk and tinsel romancing can ever compensate for the remorse which overcomes me. My children suffer too, for they are old enough to guess what all the talk is about.

This same man is now making so-called love to another member of our family. Should I give her the cold, hard facts as they really are, draw the curtain of my soul and reveal the raw wounds which self-righteous friends and family inflicted? I'm fighting to win back my place in society. Should I drag out the wife's accusations and shout the details of this scoundrel's second affair from the houseposts, to save this poor girl? Or must I sit quietly by and watch him wreck another's life?

His current mistress has one child. Her husband suffers from a heart condition. The entire community fears the effect upon him when he at last becomes aware of what is happening to his young wife. Is there anything I can do which would help?

Dear Desolated: Since the young wife hasn't sought your advice this is strictly her problem. If you interfered she might misinterpret your desire to help as revenge. Keep your own counsel. She must be aware, just as you were, of the chances she is taking. Let her work out her destiny. As for the ill-effects upon her ailing husband, again that is not your business. Any effort to aid will only precipitate a rehash of your own bitter experience.

Be thankful that your lover has given you cause to hate him, for that frees you. Blot him out of your consciousness by filling your mind with constructive interests. Re-establish yourself in society by learning to excel in some one thing. No matter whether it is an office job, rearing your children, being a homemaker, or trying any of the creative arts, do it to the very best of your ability. And in the doing, you'll acquire a whole new circle of friends who will appreciate you for what you are, instead of damn you for what you were.

Dear Helen: A star in your crown for pouring oil on storm-tossed in-law seas. But, may I point out that it is far more difficult for a mother to give up her son to some gal, than to have a guy take away her daughter. My only boy married recently and it was tough. Finally, I con-

CHAPTER XXXI

Admist all this gaiety, there was a small dark cloud on the horizon. At first it seemed so trivial that everyone either laughed at it or ignored it. Also, the source of the attack—Pravada and Tare—had been so thoroughly discredited in the past that their discredited carping had the effect of buttressing the importance of the find, and highlighting the fabulous discovery.

"Now ain't that tough!" was the usual grinning reaction to the Russians' show of bad temper. And: "Pretty soon they'll be claiming they invented Rome in the first place, so the underground town in Spain is really a colony of theirs."

This was roughly the condition of things on the afternoon that Pye Littlejohn came laboring up to my villa in what looked to be a state of shock. He refused to sit down or have a drink. Instead he paced the floor and rolled his eyes at the ceiling, circling the living room like some clumsy animal beating a pointless path about its cage.

"What for? To pin another medal on you?"

He's coming down to nail my poor old hide to the wall. He's starting a full-scale investigation into this whole miserable business."

"Nonsense. Spaniards are dancing in the street."

"Haven't you been reading what the Russians are saying?"

"Sure—for laughs, like everyone else. Is Senator Axelsson taking that seriously?"

"Look, he's being pushed by lots of people. He's got a lot of pressure on him. They want to know why the tax-payers' money was used on this job, and why we broke our contract with Spain by letting the men —" Littlejohn stopped and gulped down his drink. "You'll hear it all from him soon enough."

"But what can he do about it now? The whole thing's over and done with."

"I'll tell you what he can do—what he's going to do. Everybody connected with the business of the Snail is going to be kicked out of Spain."

"Wait a minute! What do you mean everybody?"

"I'm sorry, boy. You're on the list, right alongside me. And Dennis is close behind."

"But Dennis is a British subject."

"Axelsson's got the British government to co-operate with him. You don't realize how serious this thing is." Littlejohn got wearily to his feet.

I found Dennis enjoying the sunlight on the terrace of the Bar Central. He was in a supremely happy mood; his smile bordered on the idiotic.

"Cheer up! You look as if you'd just lost your last friend. I can't wait to tell you the news. I'm bubbling over with it. Francesca and I—"

"Please," I said. "Let me tell you mine first."

"With that—great long face you're wearing? Not on your life! Today is set aside for gaiety. Francesca and I are going to run her pension together. I'm going to stay in Spain. And do you know what else. I may sound like a conceited ass, but I believe she's fond of me. Tell me honestly, did you have the faintest notion anything that miraculous might happen?"

"Vaguely," I said.

"Then let's drink to it! Don't just sit there like a clod."

"Dennis, listen to me."

I didn't get the message home the first time; I had to spell everything out in painful detail before he realized I was serious.

For a moment he said nothing. He sat staring awkwardly at the backs of his hands. "Bit of irony, isn't it?" he said at last. "They can do it, eh? Sling me out of the country, I mean."

"I'm sorry. I'm afraid they can."

He tried to smile but his lip trembled just enough to spoil the effect. He looked wistfully about the plaza and fingered the stem of his champagne glass. Commadore Shapely drove by on his motorcycle and shouted a cheery "Comment ça va" at Dennis as he shot precariously through town. Inside the Central, Zoggy O'Neill began to sing.

"It's an absurd little place, actually," Dennis said, and blew his nose.

Sensor Axelsson arrived at the airport the following morning at seven o'clock. With him were a half-dozen aides, serious, crew-cut, competent-looking men who smoked pipes, wore vests, and carried bulging briefcases secured against spies, or curious malds,

Blood Center Okayed

In two days they interviewed everyone connected with the business of the Snail; Dennis and me, Perry and Francesca, the construction workers at gruesome length, Millie Gun and Polly Soames, Zoggy O'Neill and the other young men who had been coerced into working on the road.

New Storm Strikes at Dixie Coast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A winter storm has struck the Dixie coast from North Carolina to Maryland with icy rain and up to a foot of snow. It closed hundreds of schools and left many roads treacherous before swooping out to sea.

The storm, whipped by strong winds, lumbered into North Carolina early Sunday. It swept up the coast through southern Virginia and hopped over to the Maryland Eastern Shore.

Washington, which trembles at a snow forecast, was spared.

South of the snow belt, rain poured down along the coast as far as Georgia. Flash floods were reported to have struck the Rocky River at Norwood, N.C.

In Virginia, Richmond — the capital of the Old Dominion — got 8 inches, Blackstone 10 inches. The heaviest fall — 12 inches — was measured at Chatham.

Norfolk had four inches and Fredericksburg and points north had no snow at all.

North Carolina faced about the same with snow ranging from a light fall to 10 inches at Reidsville, near the Virginia border. The storm buffeted Southern Maryland and the lower Eastern Shore with the Pocomoke City area bearing the brunt — six inches. Slight accumulations were reported as far north as Bridgeville, Del.

Thousands of youngsters got a holiday today as hundreds of schools in the snow area were ordered closed.

Syria has a population of about 4,500,000 spread over 72,000 square miles. Egypt has about six times the people and more than five times the land.

Hospital Dedicated

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—This city's $2,345,000 Memorial Hospital was dedicated Sunday, and so many people turned out that they blocked streets and some of the dignitaries couldn't get to the ceremonies. Among them were Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., and Gov. Orval E. Faubus. The hospital commission leased the building for $1 to the Baptist Church to operate.

The phone in one early phone booth required no money to operate but the called had to deposit a coin to get out of the self-locking door.

No Doubt of Value of Russell

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If anyone doubts the value of Bill Russell to the Boston Celtics, the performance of the three-time National Basketball Association champs in the last four games may change their mind.

Russell, considered the best defensive player in the game, has missed the last four games because of a foot injury and the Celtics have lost every one.

Their four-game losing streak matches their longest since March, 1957, and has cut their Eastern Division lead from 10 to six games.

"We're going to stay put, just go with what we have," sighed Boston coach Red Auerach Sunday after his team lost to Philadelphia for the second straight time, 133-129, in overtime.

With Russell out, the tallest Celtic player is 6-foot-7 Tommy Heinsohn. Every other club in the league has a pair between 6-foot-9 and 7-foot-3.

The lack of height was obvious Sunday as two Celtics fouled out attempting to control Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain. It was Chamberlain's 50 points and the clutch free throws of Tom McChery that won the game.

In other games, Cincinnati beat Syracuse 139-131. St. Louis continued its drive toward a playoff

New Leaders in American Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Crucial weekend series sweeps by San Francisco and Pittsburgh put new leaders in each division of the American Basketball League.

San Francisco, whose 7-0 second half record is the only perfect mark among league teams, took over the Western Division lead with a Friday-Sunday sweep of Kansas City. A 106-102 victory Sunday moved the Saints two games out in front after they won 106-104 Friday night and broke a first place deadlock.

Pittsburgh, showing only a 6-0 record, replaced Chicago as the Eastern Division leader following a sweep of a three-game series. The Rams knocked off the Majors 103-87 Sunday, breaking a tie for the lead. Chicago had been in first place.

Thirteen straight points by Jim Francis and Ken Sears sent San Francisco out in front for good Sunday. Sears paced the Saints with 33 points.

Tony Jackson, whose scoring murdered Chicago in the three-game series, had 29 points in Sunday's victory.

Fayetteville Loses But Holds Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fayetteville holds first place in The Associated Press schoolboy basketball poll this week despite the fact that it suffered its first defeat of the season at the hands of Springfield, Mo., Central last week.

The Bulldogs got all nine first place votes from the board of sportswriters, who overlooked the 64-58 loss to the Missouri team.

With Fayetteville's first loss, White Hall of Class A remains the only unbeaten schoolboy cage team in Arkansas. White Hall gained its 23rd victory in a row Friday night over Watson Chapel, and climbed to fourth place in this week's statewide rankings.

Ranking second to Fayetteville is Little Rock Hall, the Big Nine Conference leader. Fayetteville is 15-1 and Hall is 14-3. Hall lost its first conference game to Pine Bluff Saturday night, 70-64.

On the strength of that victory, Pine Bluff vaulted from ninth place to fifth this week.

Jonesboro's Hurricane, 47-42 victory over Little Rock Central last week, jumped to third place this week, replacing Central. Central dropped to seventh after losses to Jonesboro and Fort Smith.

North Little Rock fell from fourth to sixth this week and Greene County Tech held eighth place. Fort Smith moved up a notch to ninth with the victory over Central. Harrison is tenth.

The results of the poll, with first place votes in parentheses and total points, based on 10 points for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., at right:

1. Fayetteville (9) ..... 90
2. Little Rock Hall ..... 78
3. Jonesboro ..... 65
4. White Hall ..... 65
5. Pine Bluff ..... 42
6. North Little Rock ..... 40
7. Little Rock Central ..... 28
8. Greene County Tech ..... 27
9. Fort Smith ..... 21
10. Harrison ..... 15

New Indoor Mile Record Set Saturday

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) - While his coach jubilantly predicted he could cut the record to an unbelievable 3.48, Peter Snell, the new world mile record holder, said today he would try to break the world half-mile standard Saturday.

Snell, who triumphed a tenth of a second off Herb Elliott's mile mark with a 3:54.4 clocking in a meet at Cooles Gardens in near-by Wanganui Saturday, said he thinks he can beat the half-mile record of 1:46.8 held by American Tom Courtney.

"I'm going to give it a whirl in a meet in Christ Church Saturday," the 22-year-old surveyor said. "They have a fast track there and I think I can do it."

Until he broke the record, Snell never had been able to get into the sub-4-minute mile club. In fact until he beat Roger Moens of Belgium in the 800 meters in an Olympic record 1:46.3 at the 1960 Rome games, Snell had not made much of a mark in international competition.

Elliott, who set his record of 3:54.5 on Aug. 6, 1958 in Dublin, said at Cambridge University that he will head for Sweden in July to start serious training for the Empire Games in Perth Australia later this year.

Said Snell: "I'm anxious to meet Elliott at either the Empire Games or the 1964 Olympics." Snell's clocking also pulled spot with a 1:40.77 triumph over Detroit and Los Angeles whipped Chicago 124-109.

Crossett Drops District Game to Bobcats

By VINCE FOSTER

The Hope Bobcats took another important victory Saturday night as they edged out the Crossett Eagles 56-50 there. This puts the Cats pretty solidly in second place in district 4AA, which Smackover leads. The Cats stand 5-1 in conference play and 12-5 seasonally.

The Kittens, however, suffered their second consecutive district loss as Crossett took them 39-37. A most pleasant surprise happened at Spring Hill Saturday, as the Hope Lady Cats won the Girls Division of the County Tournament by soundly whipping Guernsey 53-37.

The Bobcats had no easy time, as they were tied 12-12 and 26-26 in the first two quarters. They pulled out front 38-36 going into the final quarter and went on to win 56-50.

Earl Ray Murphy sacked 9 field goals and a pair of free throws to lead the Cats to 20, giving him a six game total of 74. Jeffery Powell took 6 and also has 74 district points. Hatfield sank 9, Russell and Porterfield 8 each, and Roberts 7 to complete the scoring.

The Kittens, off to a tremendous opening, have lost three out of the last four games to drop lower in conference ranking. As usual they led in the opening quarters 11-6, 23-20, 28-27 and then faltered as center Virgil McNatt fouled out, losing 39-37. McNatt took 12, giving him 45 district points. Burnett sank only 4 Saturday but leads the Kittens with 77 points.

Jordan led Hope against Crossett with 14, followed by McNatt and Burnett plus Ingram with 4 and Guernsey with 3.

Lera Beth Calcutt led Hope every quarter in the girls' victory as she totaled 25 points. Hope led 16-11, 29-17, 42-24 and 53-37 in each quarter. Other Hope scorers were Janice Lloyd with 13, Melba Calhoun with 14 and Shirley Smith with 2. Other Lady Cats are Ward Duke, Webster, Patmer, Odum, Owen, Griffin and Bruce.

Girls and their coach, Peggy Ballard, should really be congratulated, as they took this 'tourney' in three games after losing eight of their first 10 games.

Thursday the Bobcats and Lady Cats travel to Waldo for a real test of their ability, and then on Saturday, the Cats and Kittens travel to Malvern for a pair of conference battles.

Putter Cold Until He Needed It

By P. D. ELDRED

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Gene Littler's one-dollar putter was a cold and unresponsive hunk of iron until he really needed it.

Then the ancient, homemade club the U.S. Open champion picked up for a buck in Milwaukee three months ago dropped two decisive putts for Gene in a rally that made him $9,000 richer today - winner of the San Francisco Open golf tournament by two strokes with a 274.

The usually steady San Diego pro was 12 under par for three rounds and six strokes in front of the field going into a final round Sunday and it looked like a breeze for first money in the $50,000 event.

George Knudson, the spectacular young Canadian, Billy Casper and Bob Rosburg, were so far back that it looked like they were merely fighting it out for second money.

Instead, a finish duel developed with Knudson, Casper and Rosburg all making a run for the top money - and falling back in the face of Littler's two key birdies on the stretch holes.

At the finish it was Littler by two with the 24-year-old Knudson picking up his biggest tournament check with $4,600 for second place at 278. Casper and Rosburg finished at 277 for $2,800 each before heading for this week's Desert Classic at Palm Springs.

Littler took bogeys at 11, 12 and 13 on bad chip shots. Knudson pulled up even with him, with Casper and Rosburg just one stroke back.

Littler's putter caught fire then, however, and he birdied 14 and 15 with six-footers after fine approaches.

Tulloch of Britain, who finished second, to a sub-4-minute mile for the first time. Tulloch was caught in 3:59.3.

The feat was all the more remarkable in that it was accomplished on a grass surface, which is generally regarded as slower than a cinder track. Elliott set his record on a cinder track.

In ancient times Bizeris, Tunisia, then known as Hippo Zarytus waged continuous war with Carthage. Both cities fell before Roman legions in the 2nd Century B. C. and were absorbed into the Roman Empire.

Yerger Drops Two at Malvern

Last week Yerger went to Malvern and were defeated in two of three games. The local Junior boys dropped a 28 to 10 decision and the Senior girls of Hope won a close 18 to 14 decision. The local Senior boys also dropped the game to Wilson by a lopsided score.

Exams Over, Colleges Back to Cage Wars

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

College basketball, in midterm doldrums the last two weeks, swings back into high gear this week with all members of the top 10 in action and second-ranked Kentucky and third-ranked Cincinnati busiest of them all.

While undefeated and No. 1 ranked Ohio State (14-0), idle since thumping Purdue 91-65 a week ago, plays a return engagement with the Boilermakers tonight at home before taking on Northwestern Saturday. Kentucky (13-1) and Cincinnati (14-2) swing into a three-game schedule.

Kentucky, pacing the Southwestern Conference with a 4-0 mark, takes on three of the league's lower echelon - Georgia Tech tonight, Georgia Wednesday and Florida Friday.

Cincinnati, battling to stay in the Missouri Valley race, with a 4-2 standing back of ninth-ranked Bradley's 5-1 and Wichita's 5-2, meets two conference foes - Drake Tuesday at home and North Texas away Saturday. In between the Bearcats take on independent Houston at Houston Thursday.

Fourth-ranked Kansas State, 13-2 after edging Iowa State 56-55, makes only one appearance this week. The Wildcats are at home Saturday to Nebraska and need the victory to keep on the heels of Colorado's Buffaloes, whose 4-0 mark is best in the Big Eight Conference. K State's league mark is 4-1.

Southern California, fifth-ranked at 12-3, also has only one game on the week's agenda, meeting UCLA away Friday. Sixth-ranked Duquesne faces two foes, one of them tough Villanova.

The Dukes, 14-2 after stopping LaSalle 80-66 Saturday, take on Villanova (15-2) Wednesday - in what could be the game of the week. Villanova polished off Memphis State 109-84 Saturday with Hubie White getting 30 points and four teammates scoring in double figures.

Duke (14-2), ranked seventh and tied with North Carolina for the Atlantic Coast Conference lead after downing Wake Forest 82-68, clashes with two league foes - South Carolina at home Tuesday and at North Carolina Saturday.

Bowling Green (14-1), No. 8, returns to action Saturday after a week's idleness, meeting Miami (Ohio) on Miami's court Saturday. Bradley (12-3) playing without All-American Chet Walker, had a relatively easy time improving its Mo-Volley lead Saturday in downing North Texas State 84-70.

The Braves face a couple of toughies this week in Tulsa tonight and St. Louis Saturday, both at home.

Mississippi State (14-1), trailing Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference with a 4-1 mark, shouldn't have any trouble holding its place in the top 10 unless Louisiana State causes trouble Saturday. The Rebels warm up for the league clash against non-conference Delta State tonight.

The Ohio State-Purdue game brings together two All-Americans - Ohio State's Jerry Lucas and Purdue's Terry Dischinger - in a return engagement. In their first clash a week ago, Lucas outscored the Boilermaker ace 32-19, and outbounded him 21-1. Dischinger had a brilliant day against Wisconsin Saturday. He scored 50 points in a losing effort as the Badgers downed Purdue 89-86.

Dischinger's scoring rampage, however, was only second to Jimmy Rayl, who tossed in 56 points, including a game-winning 20-footer in Indiana's 105-104 victory over Minnesota.

Spring Hill, Hope Teams in Tourney Win

Spring Hill senior and Junior boys, Hope senior girls and Saratoga junior girls basketball teams won the county tournament finals in their respective brackets held Friday and Saturday night in the Spring Hill Gym.

Led by Michael Archer with 14 points, the Spring Hill Jr. Boys took a 42 to 35 victory over Blevins. Randy Ross was high for the losers with 13.

Saratoga Jr. Girls scored a 27-24 win over Spring Hill with Amanda Arnold getting 10 for the winners. Jackie Kidd was high for Spring Hill with 11.

Hope Sr. Girls posted a 53 to 37 win over Guernsey with Lera Calcutt sacking 22. Virginia Rosenbaum of Guernsey was high for the night with 33 points.

Coach Wayne Galloway's Spring Hill Sr. Boys grabbed a hard fought game from Blevins 45 to 27. Ronnie Garner looped 25 and Roy Garner 11. Harold Smith had 13, Monte Harris 8 and James Honeycutt 7 for Blevins. Spring Hill led 17-11, 31-23 and 39-26 at the quarters.

Following the senior boys final trophies were presented to the winning teams by County School Supervisor Elmer Brown.

Maple Leafs Pick Up a Few Points

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Toronto Maple Leafs picked up three of four possible points in weekend National Hockey League action but still lost ground in their struggle to overtake the first place Montreal, feasting on the tailenders, clipped Boston 5-1 Sunday night after taking New York by the same score the night before. Toronto meanwhile gained one victory and a tie.

The Leafs tied Detroit 2-2 Sunday night, while New York suffered its 10th straight defeat, a 3-0 shutout by the Chicago Black Hawks and goalie Glen Hall.

Montreal's victory extended its unbeaten string to 10 straight - eight victories and two ties. Don McKenney collected his 20th goal for Boston and now has six consecutive 20-goal seasons.

Chicago got a 29 save performance from Hall en route to the decision over the punchless Rangers. New York, which has suffered two straight shutouts at home, has scored only two goals in the last 13 periods.

Detroit's tie with Toronto may have been costly to the already injured Red Wings. Winger Vic Stasiuk suffered twisted ligaments in his right knee and will be out for 10 days. Wings Howie Glover and Leo Labine were injured earlier and did not play.</

Sears - Citizens All-Stars Play to a 19-All Tie for the March of Dimes

THE TONNEMAKER GIRLS, VALDENE, LEFT, AND MRS. Vivian Mitchell, right, argue with the other referee, Haskell Jones, who doesn't seem to be making his point very clear.

LOVENA BARBER AND VALDENE TONNEMAKER OF Sears Hot Shots, in black, guarding Helen Ratelliff, shooting, and Greta Caston of Citizens All Stars in white.

The Sears Hot Shots and Citizens Bank All-Stars played to a 19-19 tie Saturday in Jones Field House in a basketball game that netted the March of Dimes $156.27.

In a second contest the Hope Independents lost their game to the Fouke Independents by a close 63 to 59 score.

A pretty large crowd was on hand despite the conflicting event including the County tournament at Spring Hill and the Bowling tournament at Emmet.

There was plenty of fun and action throughout the contest and fans were well pleased.

SITTING, REFEREE SCRUB MOSIER, ON LADDER, Betty White and Standing is Pat Chambliss.
